GOLDEN RULE DRY GOODS COMPANY

Just Part.

"When I was on the ocean and saw its boundless extent, I said to myself: 'Sic transit gloria mundi.' Didn't you feel the significance of life that way?"

"No, I never got beyond the sick transit."

The Office and the Man.

"The office ought to seek the man," said the patriot.

"Perhaps," replied Senator Surphunt, "but when an office has to seek a man the salary is generally so small that it makes the office look like a downright mendicant."

OFFICIAL WELCOME IS ARRANGED FOR SHRINE TOURISTS

Mayor Boatright Will Greet Visitors. Mayo of San Diego Invites Albuquerque to Concert and Drill.

Official as well as fraternal welcome will be extended to the picturesque delegation of Mystic Shriners from San Diego, who will pause here Saturday morning on their journey by special train to the Shrine convention in Atlanta. Mayor D. H. Boatright received a telegram from Mayor Charles P. O'Neill of San Diego today, in which the California executive bespoke the courtesies of the city for the traveling Shriners, and Mr. Boatright at once announced that he would make a special effort to join with the Albuquerque Shriners in giving proper reception to their fraters.

The mayor will be at the station to extend the city's welcome to the visitors, who are expected to arrive here at about 7 o'clock Saturday morning. There will be at the station also the entire divan of the local Shrine temple, and many of the members, with automobiles enough to take the visitors on a rapid-fire tour of the city.

In the telegram to Mayor Boatright the mayor of San Diego extended an invitation to all Albuquerque to come to the depot and be entertained by the Shriners with music and fancy drills. Mayor O'Neill's message was as follows:

"Saturday, May 2, a special train carrying the San Diego Shriners will be in your city with band and patrol. They are bound for Atlanta. A cordial invitation is extended to your citizenship to be present at the depot and be entertained by them with music and fancy drills. Any courtesies extended to them will be thoroughly appreciated by me and all Californians."

"CHARLES O'NEILL, Mayor." Program to Be Given Here. The Shriners here have just received the program which will be given by the California Shriners' ten million dollar band of 120 pieces, four sousa patrols, soloists, Al Malakiah chanters, assisted by several features to be announced later by the local Shriners, when the California serenaders arrive in the great steel caravan of four sections, Saturday morning.

Practically the same program will be given in each of the fifty-seven cities of the country:

Overture—"Orpheus" . . . Offenbach
Noble George W. Bennett, Islam Temple, Conductor.

Solo for Flugelhorn . . . Wagner
Franz Helle, late of Sousa's Band

"Pilgrims' Chorus"—from Tannhauser . . . Wagner
Al Malakiah Chanters, Director, W. D. Deedle.

"Tone Pictures of the North and South" . . . Bondie
Shriner Band, W. T. Pidwell, Conductor.

Sunrise Call . . . Troyer
Sunrise Call . . . Troyer

(This is the morning ceremonial given by the Sun-Priest. He calls his people to arise and greet the new day.)

Nell Lockwood McCune, assisted by E. C. Calvin, Pianist
Exhibition Drill . . . Islam Patrol
Captain Alexander Woodsides, Commanding.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind. — "My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself."

I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine.

"I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know." — Mrs. DANIEL D. B. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Ernest Miller, Al Bahr Baritone Solo — Prologue from "Pagliacci" Leoncavallo
L. A. Larsen, Islam Temple, Mrs. L. A. Larsen at Piano.
"I Love You, California" Silverwood - Frankenstein
Conducted by Composer, A. F. Frankenstein, Al Malakiah.
Grand Selection—"Faust" Gounod
W. D. Deedle, conductor.
Al Malakiah Temple.
Finale — "America," 120-piece band and audience, led by Al Malakiah Chanters.
